- Any major internet browser (including Chrome, Firefox and Internet Explorer)

Q: Does TABQUIK.ca have to be accessed from the same computer?

A: No. TABQUIK.ca is web-based and can be accessed from any computer meeting the system requirements. However, program specific settings, such as alignment and preserved data, are saved on a per-machine basis.

Q: Can other users access my data?

A: No. Your data resides locally on your computer; no data is transmitted via the Internet or attached to or saved on your TABQUIK.ca account.

Q: Will my data be secure with TABQUIK.ca?

A: Yes! User data will never leave your PC, or travel over the Internet in any way. This includes the importing of files; the import process (conversion) takes place on the local computer.

Q: What data options are available in TABQUIK.ca?

A: TABQUIK.ca allows for data to be manually entered in a data grid or imported from other formats, such as a delimited text file or Microsoft Excel Spreadsheet.

Q: What about my firewall or other stringent network security?

A: TABQUIK.ca was designed for use in most environments.

Q: Are multiple TABQUIK.ca accounts required for multiple company locations?

A: No. TABQUIK.ca allows for multiple users per company account.

Q: Can I match my existing label's colour-scheme?

A: TABQUIK.ca offers a robust colour matching tool which enables you to customize your colours to any existing colour scheme.

Q: How do I design my own labels?

A: All label designs, including revisions, will be completely handled by the TABQUIK Support Team; no training is necessary. Charges may be applicable depending on the type of request.

Q: Is there a trial available for TABQUIK.ca?

A: A trial is available via the TABQUIK.ca website directly. The trial will provide all of the functionality of TABQUIK.ca, but will place a watermark on any printed labels. To access the trial, click the “Try It!” link on the homepage.
